MONDAY, APRIL 18, 1887.

LOCAL NEWS.

A young man had his feet badly cut while bathing in the Waikahalulu stream yesterday.

Mr. F. Horn is going to build commodious ice cream parlors on the lot adjoining his store on Hotel street.

The cricketers from H. B. M. S. Caroline defeated the local team by about seventy runs in the match on Saturday.

"Drunk" was written opposite seven names on the Station slate up till midnight—$45 if there is no mistake anywhere.

J. D. Spreckels & Bros. have bought the bark W. W. Case, employed trading between San Francisco and Kahului, for $15,000.

There was a California dinner at the Club House on Saturday evening, and George can do it some more, as he keeps an ice house on the premises.

Gus Brown, the champion catch-as-catch-can wrestler and light weight pugilist of the Pacific Coast, was a passenger by the Alameda for the Colonies.

The best things to have laid by for a rainy day are an umbrella and an insurance policy in the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. S. G. Wilder, agent.

There was a rousing house at the Blue Ribbon League entertainment Saturday night. The performance was one of the best yet, besides being topped off with an ice cream festival.

Charles Akau, second officer of the first police watch, died yesterday afternoon. He was born at Hilo, his father was a Chinaman, and he was well liked by his comrades on the force.

McCarthy's billiard hall and the Fort street shooting gallery and bowling alley were thronged all Saturday evening. The British man-of-war's men take fondly to rifle practice on shore.

Mr. W. Turner, King street, is making a grand display of clocks. A passing glance shows a large variety of time-keepers in the window, but the proprietor says there are whole cases of them at the wharf to be opened out directly.

Mr. H. A. Richter, proprietor of the Victoria restaurant, has his hand in a sling from getting it crushed by an iron door. He cannot tell yet whether the joints of the hand will any of them be made permanently stiff from the accident. It is to be hoped not.

The European mail for Australia, ex Alameda, left New York on the 2nd and was due at San Francisco on the afternoon of the 8th, but did not arrive until 1:10 the following day, owing to some hitch in the connection between New York and Omaha. The Alameda's departure was therefore delayed nearly twenty-four hours.

Sir William Wiseman, Bart, commander of H. B. M. S. Caroline, entertains King Kalakaua at breakfast on board that ship this morning. His Majesty gave a dinner to Sir William, officers of the Caroline, Major Wodehouse (British Commissioner) and Hawaiian magnates, civil and military, on Friday night.

The Bulletin says that "Mr. Williams, manager of Spreckelsville plantation, Maui, has resigned his position, on account of ill health, in favor of Mr. Morrison, 'to take effect on June 1st.' This announcement will be received with regret, as Mr. Williams has made a fine record as a successful planter, on the largest plantation in the group.

At four o'clock this afternoon the Kinau sails on a special excursion for the volcano. On her last trip she brought word of smoke still pouring out of Mauna Loa, while a new lake has opened up in Kilauea, the destination of the tourists. Mr. Mabey, keeper of the Volcano House, reports considerable light from the reflection of the fire at night.

The box plan for the tableaux and comic performance to-night was pretty well dotted over with pre-empted seats by Saturday evening. It will probably be filled up before the close of business hours to-day. Not only on account of the benevolent object, but of the reputation of the actors, is this entertainment likely to prove one of the greatest successes scored this season at the Opera House.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

No hand-book exceeds the Hawaiian Almanac and Annual for reliable statistical and general information relating to these Islands. Price 50 cents.

If you want a good smoke for your money, patronize home industry and call at J. W. Hingley's, Crystal Soda Works, 69 Hotel street, next door to Horn's Bakery. Island orders solicited and promptly filled. There is no license required to sell these cigars.

SUPREME COURT.

AT CHAMBERS.

Before Judge Preston. Ah Mook and Chock Hin, convicted March 18th, in the Honolulu Police Court, of gaming in violation of section 5, chapter 41, laws of 1886, and sentenced each to pay a fine of $75 and $1.15 costs, and imprisoned in default of payment, were brought before the Court Saturday on habeas corpus. Mr. A. P. Peterson, Deputy Attorney General, appeared for the Marshal, and Mr. W. R. Castle for the prisoner. Counsel for the prisoners argued that the charge and the judgment are fatally erroneous; that section 5 of chapter 41, of laws of 1886, provides no penalty for gaming. Counsel for the Marshal argued that in habeas corpus, parties cannot go behind a judgment.

The decision of the Court is reserved until the 20th inst, and it is ordered that prisoners be allowed to be admitted to bail in the sum of $50 each. Hearing on the writ of habeas corpus, issued Friday, in the case of the King vs. Ah Tuck, was had, the Deputy Attorney General for the Marshal, and Mr. W. R. Castle for the prisoner. Counsel for Ah Tuck moved for a discharge on the grounds of the oral decision rendered by the Court in the Manuel Brito case a few days since. The Deputy Attorney General argued that said decision could not be cited as a precedent, not having been filed in writing. The terms of the prisoner's conviction were, "having unlawfully in possession—contrary to section 4 of the session laws of 1886, approved on the 15th day of October, 1886." The prisoner was discharged.

MORE HABEAS CORPUS.

A writ of habeas corpus was issued on the petition of Wong Chew Yan, on behalf of Ah Kau, and is returnable this morning at 10 o'clock. Ah Kau is a prisoner in Oahu jail, having been convicted before Z. Kalai, Police Magistrate in Kohala, Hawaii, upon the charge "of having possession of opium for sale or purchase, under the statute of 1886, that is possession and smoking contrary to the rules for obtaining opium by any one made by the Minister of Interior, it is thought he would be guilty."

Death of Captain D. McGregor.

Captain Daniel McGregor, employed by the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, died at his house on School street yesterday morning about half past 2 o'clock. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh, assisted by the Rev. J. M. Silver, conducting services in the ritual of the Anglican Church. There was a pretty large attendance, notwithstanding the brief notice. The cause of Captain McGregor's death was typhoid fever, that he attributed to the unwholesome condition of Oahu jail. It will be remembered that on February 16th, at Punaluu, this island, he became involved in a quarrel with his sailors of the schooner Manuokawai, and in a heated moment stabbed one of them in the breast. For this he was sentenced on March 7th to pay a fine and be imprisoned at hard labor for twenty days. This term he completed about a week before his death, leaving prison a sick man. Captain McGregor was a strong young man, being only thirty years of age. His nationality was Scotch. Much sympathy will be felt for his bereaved widow, especially because of the painful circumstances connected with her husband's last few weeks of life. Captain McGregor was well liked by his employers and the public, and the unfortunate position he placed himself in by that one rash act at Punaluu was a terrible surprise to all.

Police Court.

Ioke is remanded till the 20th, charged with deserting contract service.

Manuel Naone, for stealing watches, money and other valuables at Koolauloa, the other side of this island, was sentenced to pay $8 and be imprisoned two years at hard labor. Manuel escaped from the Reformatory school some months ago, and it appears had been leading a freebooter's life in the outer districts until arrested.

Harry did not face the music for drunkenness, but forfeited the usual bail.

The foregoing was all of Saturday's business, and Judge Dayton looked happy in getting a half holiday.

Chas. T. Gulick—Notary Public.

Records searched, abstract of title furnished, and conveyances drawn on short notice.

COLLECTION AGENCY.—Mr. John Good, Jr., authorized collector.

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.—Mr. F. Mateos, special agent.

GENERAL BUSINESS AGENCY.—No. 38 Merchant street.

On the first of January, 1887, the assets of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. were $114,181,963.24. Now is the time to insure. S. G. Wilder, agent.

Shipping Notes.

S. S. Alameda, with English and American mails, sailed from San Francisco April 9 at 2 p. m., and was docked in Honolulu at 10 a. m. April 16. Having taken in a supply of coal she resumed her voyage for the Colonies about six o'clock the same afternoon.

Barkentine Geo. C. Perkins, Captain Ackerman, arrived yesterday morning 14 days from San Francisco, with a general cargo and deckload of posts and shingles. She is docked at Brewster's wharf.

All the inter-island vessels experienced rough weather during the past week. The Kinau reports the Lehua and Kilauea Hou waiting for a chance to load on the Hamakua coast. The Mikahala and C. R. Bishop had to change their ports of departure on Kauai because of the weather.

Steamer Kinau brought 4,130 bags sugar, 28 hides, 1 horse, 460 feet koa lumber, 20 bags spuds and 50 packages sundries.

Steamer Likelike brought 2,586 bags sugar, 200 bags taro, 30 bags corn, 52 bags potatoes and 59 hides.

Steamer Surprise brought 4,000 bags sugar.

Steamer Mikahala brought 2,200 bags sugar, 23 head cattle, 754 goat-skins and 75 green hides.

Steamer C. R. Bishop brought 2,130 bags sugar; schooner Waioli, 1,000 bags sugar; schooner Waichu, 600 bags sugar and 95 rice.

Arrived at San Francisco—April 2, barkentine Ella, 18½ days hence; 3, brig Consuelo, 15 days hence; 4, schooner Rosario, 18½ days from Kahului; 6, bark Ceylon, 20 days hence; brig J. D. Spreckels, 14 days hence; 7, bark Sonoma, 23 days hence; 8, bark Glengaber, 17 days hence; barkentine S. N. Castle, 16 days hence.

Sailed from San Francisco—April 3, barkentine Katie Flickinger for Honolulu; 5, bark W. W. Case for Kahului; bark Julia Ford for Hilo; 6, bark Ironcrag for Honolulu; 7, brig W. G. Irwin for Honolulu; 8, schooner Rosario for Kahului.

Loading at San Francisco April 9 for Honolulu—barks Lady Lamson, Forest Queen and Sonoma.

Bark El Dorado foundered off Cape Flattery April 1st, and all on board except two were lost. Captain Humphries, well known in Honolulu, was killed by being dashed against the deck house.

Barkentine J. C. Ford returned to San Francisco April 2nd, on account of carrying away iron work on main gaff.

The Great Sale To-day.

Anybody, barring newspaper men, who is not well dressed within a reasonable time after Messrs. E. P. Adams & Co.'s sale of cloths to-day, should go and hide outside the pale of civilization. Mr. Kerr, one of the leading tailors of Honolulu, personally selected the goods abroad, and they are there in the auction room for the most critical inspection. There is no occasion to miss a single choice, either for the necessity of going out for "grub" is to be avoided by the management providing an elegant lunch on the premises. To be clothed for half nothing and fed for nothing seldom falls to the lot of people even in this so-called "Paradise of the Pacific."

Hotel Arrivals.

ROYAL HAWAIIAN HOTEL.

Mrs. J. B. S. Scott, Miss J. S. Scott, Baltimore, Md.; Miss M. Larrigan, Mrs. Florence Williams, Wm. T. Higgins and wife, Miss Josie Crowley, San Francisco; C. B. Wells, John L. Blaisdell, Kohala, Hawaii; H. Morrison, Hilo; Z. S. Spalding, Kauai; Chas. G. de Bethan, F. L. Cohen, England; besides many transient guests from the steamer Alameda on Saturday.

EAGLE HOUSE.

T. K. Moore, New York; F. Petersen, San Francisco; Arthur Richardson, Chas. Campbell, Walter Badger, city.

Diplomatic circles in Berlin are disquieted over sharp articles against France in German newspapers. It is believed that Germany will send a pointed note to Paris unless the French press entirely changes its tone regarding Alsace-Lorraine.

The Bulgarian regency is to be prolonged three years, when it will make a united Bulgarian and Roumelian independent kingdom, electing Prince Alexander as King, Turkey to receive a monetary recompense.

Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland, moved the second reading of the Irish coercion bill April 5th. Sir Bernard Samuelson moved in amendment that "the bill would, if passed, increase disorder in Ireland and anger the Union and the Empire, and therefore should be rejected."

The Belgium Legislature has passed a bill, by 86 to 9, authorizing the Free Congo State to issue a lottery loan of 150,000,000 francs.

The Japs.

A slightly improved house over that of the previous night met the Japanese acrobats Saturday night. More people would probably have gone under the canvas had it not been for a heavy shower at the time of opening. The Japs, however, were in as good humor as if a million people gazed at them from the amphitheatre. They performed as many astonishing feats as usual, the little men being particularly worthy of admiration. In throwing and catching sticks, about half a dozen of them, one of the youngsters beat anything of the kind ever shown in the sawdust ring. No more performances are as yet announced.

The Marshal's sale of one phanton and one bay horse, to satisfy an execution issued in the suit of Fishel vs. Kapena, is off, on account of proceedings in bankruptcy having been taken in the case of the defendant.

Smoke the "Wedge," to be found at C. J. McCarthy's.
